Balapura Dist -Hingoli, Dr. S. K. Wadekar – M. S. G. College, Malegaon Camp, Dist- Nashik. They included speech says that India as world's one the biggest democratic country earlier followed the federal tax system. Different types of indirect taxes now merged into one called 'Goods and Services Tax (GST)'. It is come into effect from July 1st 2017 through the implementation of 'One Hundred and First Amendment of Constitution of India' by the Government of India. In India goods and services are divided into five tax slabs for collection of tax - 0%, 5%, 12%, 18% and 28%. The GST contributes to reduce cost of production and inflation. This helps to make Indian trade and industry competitive, domestically as well as internationally and foster a common or seamless Indian market and contribute significantly to the growth of our economy. On this occasion, a proceeding book containing Research Paper of the authors was published at the hands of Chief guest. The introduction of this Conference was done by Dr. J.B. More. The anchoring was done by prof. S.A. Saindane. Prof. B.L. Mahajan gave a vote of thanks. The members of organizing committee and along with teaching and non teaching staff of the institute took efforts to make this conference successful.

About the Conference:

Literature is a mirror to society. It has been reflecting various social trends and tendencies till this time. It has been the integral part of human life. Going through various types of Literature in society, they have been teaching us the equality for man in all the walks of life. And hence different types of literary developments in Marathi, Hindi and English languages have been carried on by the Researchers throughout various Indian languages. Researchers and Readers have attempted continuously to study various aspects related. We can see the different traits admitted by the Researchers.

The artistic and life giving streams and tendencies have been put before us by the literary personalities. These attempts have created tendencies and natures and keeping this in mind, the deliberations have been expected and hence only, it shall be fruitful and praise-worthy for the students, Researchers and readers of literature.
