Gender Audit Report

The College is very much concerned with safety and empowerment of women in the present scenario. We have always promoted gender equity in every sphere of life. To address situation and keep space with changing scenario, we have set a unique tradition to organise International Women Day in our College. Our college has played a vital role to bring her to light at National and International Levels. We do help all the needy women.

During the last five years, we have organised several programs to bring gender equity and empowerment of women in our society.

Boys & Girls are given equal opportunities in selecting their subjects. There are maximum girls students for whom the equal opportunities are given in various co-curricular activities such as research activities like Avishkar, Seminar, Group Discussion, General Knowledge Classes, Debate Competition, Eloquence competition, Quiz Contest, etc. & they are participated to extra- curricular activities like Annual Social Gathering, Yuvati Sabha Programs, University Activities, Sports Activities & the University Level Cultural program called Yuvarang. Girls are doubled in the NSS unit of the college. They take part in the outdoor activities of NSS, NGO, Sports, etc. The girls are enthusiastic in participation with boys students in the special winter camp of NSS in adopted village, Karki in the activities like Cleanliness Campaign, Literacy Campaign, Tree Plantations, Soil Water Conservation, etc. The inauguration of the NSS Camp has been purposely done by the auspicious hands of the girls from the minority classes. The girls are given special trainings in Yoga, Judo Karate, Vipashana, etc. Various programs are conducted to develop the personalities of girls. The legal advisor, special doctors, psychologists, Vipashana Teachers, etc are invited to uplift girls. The Programs on Women Empowerment, Beti Bachao Beti Padhao, Stri Mukti Movement and Personality-Development are organized in the college. The special importance has been given to the girls in the staff council by the university. Therefore there are no differences among the girls and boys. We have formed an internal complaint committee to solve the problems related with the girls if any. The Woman Empowerment Committee works for the activities of girls. The CCTV cameras have been installed for the safety of girls. The vending machine is available in the college.
